I heartily welcome all of you to this Institute, established by Hon'ble Ranjeetbabu Deshmukh, Ex-Agriculture Minister. We came upon because of the sheer dedication and selfless commitment of Dr. Bhausahab Bhoge, founder of VSPM academy of higher Education Society. This is one of the first colleges in rural area for imparting higher education. Which is situated on the Nagpur to Warud highway, the College has a big, beautiful green campus where excellent facilities such as well-equipped library, Girls hostels, Indoor stadium, playground, gymnasium, Computer lab, Communicative English, Competitive exam guidance cell, welding fabrication, fashion design, Botanical Garden, canteen etc. can be availed. Various programmes such as B.A, B.Com, B.Sc., and M.A. are offered in the College with Marathi as medium of instruction. Specializations such as Languages, Social Sciences and Music can be pursued for graduation. Highly educated and dedicated faculty members put in sincere efforts for students' all-round personality development through various curricular and extra – curricular activities NSS, Sports, are special features of our College. We strive to inculcate good human values in our students through all the activities conducted by the college. All the departments of the college undertake extension activities through which our students contribute to the upliftment and development of neighboring society. I congratulate you for selecting this college for your graduation and promise you quality education as well as all-round personality development. My best wishes to all of you for all your future endeavors.
